

J.W. Johnstone Scholarship

The J.W. Johnstone, Jr. Scholarship in the Faculty of Professional Studies is awarded annually to a student entering their final year of an undergraduate degree program in the Faculty (may include BEd students if a previous degree from Acadia is held). The criteria for the scholarship shall be broadly based on academic excellence as demonstrated in the previous years marks, an interview and a dossier which will be reviewed by an examining committee. J.W. Johnstone, Jr. graduated with the Bachelor of Arts degree as one of our four members of Acadia's first graduating class in June 1843. Following graduation, he studied law in Halifax and practiced there until 1876 when he became the first County Judge for District Number 1, Halifax County. He was the first President of the Associated Alumni of Acadia College. The award is provided by the Associated Alumni of Acadia University. Value: $2,000
