

Community Engagement Service Award

In recognition of the exemplary involvement of the Faculty of Professional Studies in community engagement and/ or service work at Acadia University, this award is presented annually to a faculty member in the Faculty of Professional Studies who has served at least 3 years and who has demonstrated an on-going commitment and leadership in community engagement and/ or service activities. The winner of this award is a significant contributor to both Acadia University as well as the broader community.

Past Recipients:

- 2013 - 2014 – Dr. Lynn Aylward, School of Education
- 2012 - 2013 – Dr. Alan Warner, School of Recreation Management & Kinesiology
- 2011 - 2012 – Dr. Edith Callaghan, School of Business and Dr. Darren Kruisselbrink, School of Recreation Management & Kinesiology