

Awards Committee for Honorary Degrees and Emeriti Distinction (Awards Committee)

Honorary Doctorate Guidelines

An Honorary Doctorate is an honour bestowed by the University and is intended to recognize individuals who have made extraordinary contributions to the academy and/or society and whose accomplishments, leadership, and/or community service are deemed to be extraordinary and thus worthy of honoris causa – “for the sake of the honour”.

Criteria & Conditions of Eligibility

Acadia University seeks to honour individuals whose contributions or accomplishments are exceptional and reflect an appropriate standard of excellence, consistent with the values and the spirit of the University. The criteria to be considered include:

- Recognition as exceptional scholars or leaders in their field.
- A demonstrated commitment to Higher Education.
- Individuals who are known for their humanitarian leadership.
- A significant contribution to the local region.
- Exceptional service to the University.

Nominations for an Honorary Doctorate will not normally be considered for an individual who is currently:

a member of federal parliament or provincial legislatures

- a member of the Board of Governors
- a member of the University faculty and staff

Nominating Procedures

1. A call for nominations for the Honorary Doctorate degree from the President’s Office will occur by October 1st of each year.
2. Any person or group may nominate an individual for the award of an Honorary Doctorate.

3. Nomination materials should include:
 - a letter of nomination from the nominator
 - a brief statement (one-page maximum) explaining why the candidate is worthy of an Honorary Doctorate from Acadia University
 - an up-to-date curriculum vitae of the nominee

4. Nominations are to be received at the President's Office by November 15th of each year.

Selection Process

1. All nominations will be reviewed by the Awards Committee.

2. The nomination for the Doctor of Divinity honorary degree will be received from the Senate of Acadia Divinity College.
